

October 31, 2018

DRAMATISTS GUILD FOUNDATION HOSTS 2018 DGF GALA

ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12 AT MANHATTAN CENTER IN NYC

Writer, Lyricist and Composer Sheldon Harnick, Estée Lauder Companies' Executive Group President John Demsey & Chairman of Douglas Elliman's Retail Group Faith Hope Consolo to receive 2018 Honors

Hosted by Kate Baldwin, with performances by: Josh Lamon; Eisa Davis; Elizabeth Stanley; Jai'len Josey; George Salazar; Jason 'SweetTooth' Williams; and more. With appearances by Andrew Lippa (President, DGF); Alan Cumming; Anthony Wilkinson; Matthew Sklar; Chad Beguelin; Joe Iconis; Tom Kitt; and more.

The Dramatists Guild Foundation (DGF) hosts annual DGF Gala to celebrate artists and honor patrons of the American theater community in gratitude of their continued support of emerging writers and creators. This year's theme is First Look, providing guests an early glimpse of recently and soon-to-be released musicals and plays, including: Be More Chill; Jagged Little Pill; The Secret Life of Bees; and The Prom.

The Dramatists Guild Foundation supports the future of American theater by supporting the writers who create it. DGF's programs and initiatives help propel playwrights, composers, lyricists, and book writers to their full potential by providing arts education and resources across the country. For more information about DGF, please visit: www.dgf.org, and follow on social media: @dgfound.

